It is difficult perhaps to determine which of them proceeded with the Racow press I am disposed to think that the former copy [of 279 pages] is the original and that the other was printed subsequently in Holland. There is a Copy of each of them in D^r Daniel Williams's Library __ vide Th. Copernicus, Nicolaus, Nicolai Copernici ... De Revolutionibus Orbium Coelestium, libri VI. In quibus stellarum et fixarum et erraticarum motus, ex veteribus atq[ue] recentibus observationibus, restituit, hic autor. Praeterea tabulas expeditas luculentasq[ue] addidit, ex quibus eosdem motus ad quodvis tempus mathematicum studiosus facillime calculare poterit. Item, De libris revolutionum Nicolai Copernici Narratio prima, per M. Georgium Ioachim Rheticum ... scripta (Basel, 1566)

NLS notes: inscriptions on the title page "Craincte [d?] Espoir" in an apparently contemporary hand, "Exi Liberis Wolfters verss" (all readings doubtful) in an apparently 17th century hand, and "Konst Zamoyski 1820 w Londynie". The top of the title page, where another inscription appears to have been written, is cut off. Inscription on the following flyleaf "WH" in an apparently 18th-century hand and there are a few marginalia in various later hands scattered throughout the volume.
