Nicolai Copernici Torinensis de Revolutionibus Orbium coestium libri VI. Basiliae ex officina Henripetrina. 1566.

NLS: Pol.S.135

https://search.nls.uk/permalink/f/sbbkgr/44NLS_ALMA21480582980004341

Copernicus, Nicolaus, Nicolai Copernici ... De Revolutionibus Orbium Coelestium, libri VI. In quibus stellarum et fixarum et erraticarum motus, ex veteribus atq[ue] recentibus observationibus, restituit, hic autor. Praeterea tabulas expeditas luculentasq[ue] addidit, ex quibus eosdem motus ad quoduis tempus mathematicum studiosus facillime calculare poterit. Item, De libris revolutionum Nicolai Copernici Narratio prima, per M. Georgium Ioachimum Rheticum ... scripta (Basel, 1566)

NLS notes: inscriptions on the title page "Craincte [d?] Espoir" in an apparently contemporary hand, "Exi Liberis Wolfters verss" (all readings doubtful) in an apparently 17th century hand, and "Konst Zamoyski 1820 w Londynie". The top of the title page, where another inscription appears to have been written, is cut off. Inscription on the following flyleaf "WH" in an apparently 18th-century hand and there are a few marginalia in various later hands scattered throughout the volume.

MS note on 2nd front free leaf: It may be mentioned here that there are two Editions bearing the date of 1609 – They are both in 18^{mo} one comprising 279 pages; the Other, which is in a smaller paper extending to 317 pages. It is difficult perhaps to determin which of them proceeded with the Racow press I am disposed to think that the former copy [of 279 pages] is the original and that the other was printed subsequently in Holland. There is a Copy of each of them in Dr Daniel Williams's Library __ vide Th. Rees's Racovian Cathecism page LXXIX – of the Introduction [The note is copied from Rees's work in full in a footnote on p. lxxix. Thomas Rees, The Racovian Cathecism (London, 1818)]
